quently the crops in some of the parganas were not good, and the prices of foodgrains remained high.

The peace of the capital was rudely disturbed early in the year by a serious outbreak of a revolutionary nature. Discontented and disloyal persons from outside the State had been endeavouring to stir up trouble in the State for some time. Their efforts attained some measure of success and a number of persons were induced to openly defy His Highness. Strong measures were adopted against these persons, and the majority of them were arrested. They were sent up for trial before a tribunal presided over by a Special Judge whose services were obtained from British India, and a number of them were eventually convicted and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment under section 124, A.I.P.C.

There were no political disturbances in the parganas though a few persons were dealt with for importing seditious publications.

Protection.

I. Legislation

The laws and regulations in force in the State are generally the same as are in force in British India. Some of these laws and regulations have been modified to suit local requirements.

No new law was introduced in the State during the year under review,

2. State Forces

(a) The strength of the forces remained unchanged i.e. it was 1832 officers and men during the year under report vide appendix III.

The total expenditure on Military Department was Rs. 2,46,691/3/4 during the year under review. The figures for the previous year were Rs. 2,12,310/- the increase in the cost of the force during the year under report was due to an increment of pay sanctioned by His Highness for certain ranks.

The sepoys are mainly employed on watch and ward duties. The State forces continued to be trained and drilled at Tonk by Subedar Noor Khan a Government Pensioned Military Officer.

(d) The administration of the Military department was entrusted to the Financial Member on the 1st August 1921.

(e) The State Band continued to be trained satisfactorily by Mr. Franco the Band Master.

3. Police.

Charge. Mr. Wareham was Inspector General of Police till the 14th March 1921 when he was relieved by Mr. Ferguson Additional Superintendent

Police, Delhi, whose services were placed at the disposal of the Darbar by the Chief Commissioner, Delhi. On relief Mr. Wareham reverted to the United Provinces and Mr. Ferguson remained in charge of the Police for the rest of the year.

The services of B. Bhagwati Pershad of the Ajmere Merwara Police were placed at the disposal of the Darbar in the course of the year and he was appointed Additional Superintendent Police, Tonk. He was attached to the State for a period of 9 months only and then reverted to British India.

Political situation. The political outlook was gloomy in the early part of the year. Agitators from British India had long been trying to stir up discontent in the state. They gradually won over some of the more lawless elements of Tonk City, and an effort was made early in January to flout His Highness's authority. Strenuous action was taken and the ring leaders of the seditious movement were arrested. Proceedings were instituted against them and they were sent up for trial before a tribunal presided over by a British Judge. His Highness was pleased to exercise his prerogative of mercy in the case of several of the accused, but a number of them were convicted sentenced to substantial terms of imprisonment under section 124 I.P.C.

Peripatetic sedition mongers also tried to create trouble in Aligarh, Kimbahera and Pirawa, but their activities were speedily checked.

Crime. There was decrease of crime in all the parganas of the State except Pirawa. 1160 cases were reported during the year as compared with 1327 during the previous year. The decrease in crime is mainly noticeable in serious cases against property. Thus dacoity cases fell from 26 to 19 and robbery cases fell from 41 to 23. Ordinary theft fell from 305 to 224 but there was an increase in burglary cases from 353 to 383. There was a considerable increase in cattle theft, 213 cases being reported as compared with 143 during the previous year. The increase is probably due to better reporting. Pirawa returned the largest number of cattle theft cases-72. The subject of cattle theft is receiving the attention of the Inspector General of Police.

Prosecutions 567 cases were sent up by the Police in the course of the year and 374 of these cases resulted in conviction, 7 cases were acquitted, 84 were pending trial at the end of the year, the proceedings under section 512 Cr. P.C. were taken in 39. cases.

Dakaiti 19 cases of dacoity were reported during the year and there were 32 cases pending at the end of 1327 Fasli.

Of the cases in which the accused were challaned, 10 ended in conviction, and 2 in acquittal. 9 were pending trial at the end of the year and proceedings under section 512 Cr. P.C. were taken in 3 cases.

177 persons were arrested in connection with these cases during the year. Of these 90 were sent up for trial. 41 were convicted, 8 were acquitted, and one man died in Jail. 40 persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

Sironj is still the dacoity centre, 11 of the 19 dacoities reported having occurred in that Pargana. The Inspector General reports that the people of Sironj have not yet realised the advantages of self help and that they rarely combine to resist daknits. A serious dacoity occurred at a village called kachipura during the year but the villagers of an adjoining village never turned out to beat off the dacoits though they were well armed and were aware that a dacoity was being committed less than 200 yards away. It is satisfactory to note that the Aligarh Pargana was free from this form of crime during the year.

Robbery 23 cases occurred during the year and 10 cases were pending at the end of the year. There were thus 33 cases for disposal 15 of these cases were challaned, 11 were not worked out, 3 were expunged and 3 were still under enquiry at the end of the year. Of the 15 cases sent up for trial 5 resulted in conviction, and 3 in acquittal. Proceedings under Section 512 Cr. P.C. were taken in 6 cases and 1 case was undecided at the close of the year.

Murder. 4 cases occurred during the year and 5 cases were pending from 1327 Fasli. In 8 cases the accused were sent up for trial. 3 of these cases ended in conviction, and 1 in acquittal. Under Section 512 proceedings were taken in 1 case and 3 cases were pending trial at the end of the year.

Culpable Homicide 4 cases were reported during the year and 2 cases were pending from the previous year. 2 of these cases were sent up for trial and one of the two ended in the conviction of the accused. 1 case was expunged and 2 were under investigation at the end of the year.

Burglary There was an increase in burglary cases during the year, 383 cases being reported as compared with 353 during the previous year. 29 cases were pending from 1327 Fasli and the Police thus had 412 cases to deal with. 350 of these cases were investigated but only 86 cases were sent up for trial. Of these 64 cases ended in conviction.

Theft. 224 cases of theft occurred during the year and 32 cases were pending from the previous year. Of the 256 cases for disposal 96 cases were sent up for trial. Of these 76 ended in conviction and 12 in acquittal. 6 were pending trial at the end of the year and under Section 512 proceedings were taken in 2 cases.

Cattle theft. Cattle theft was on the increase during the year, 213 cases having been reported. 26 cases were pending at the end of the previous year. 80 cases were sent up for trial and 57 of them ended in the conviction of the accused. 10 cases were still before the Courts at the close of the year and proceedings under section 512 Cr.
